Course Handout Part I

Date: 10 August 2026

In addition to part I (General Handout for all courses appended to the Timetable), this portion gives further specific details regarding the course.

Course Number : SW E101

Course Title : Social Conduct 1

Instructor-in-charge : Prof. Rajneesh Choubisa
Prof. Sangeeta Sharma

1. Course description:

Emotional & Social Intelligence, Relationships & Identity, Laws & Campus Policies and Practice, Inappropriate Behavior & Consent, Substance Abuse, Emotional Maturity & Communication, Recognizing Harm & Promoting Safety.

2. Scope and Objective:

This is the first of a two-part course that is a General Institute Requirement, for all students in the first year of any program. It is intended to equip students with core emotional, social and legal literacy for a healthy campus life. This includes conversations around gender, sexuality, mental health, understanding of boundaries and consent, prevention of sexual misconduct, promoting responsible digital behavior and building awareness against substance abuse.

3. Course learning outcomes:

At the end of this part of the course, the student will be able to CLO1. Recognize and apply core emotional and social skills for campus well-being, including stress management, empathy, and self-awareness.

CLO2. Understand and navigate relationships with peers, faculty, and family, with sensitivity to gender identity, sexuality, and high achievement pressures.

CLO3. Identify and challenge harmful social myths and stereotypes related to gender roles, masculinity, and interpersonal dynamics.

CLO4. Establish and respect personal boundaries in social, academic, and digital contexts.

CLO5. Demonstrate awareness of campus policies, legal protections (including POSH), and the consequences of sexual misconduct.

CLO6. Understand reporting mechanisms and institutional responsibilities in promoting a safe and inclusive campus environment.

CLO7. Engage with mental health literacy, recognize signs of emotional distress, and promote openness around mental well-being.

CLO8. Reflect on individual responsibility in building a safe, respectful, and accountable student community.

4. Text books and references:

No textbooks are needed for the course.

5. Course Format & Weekly Workflow

- The course is fully online, with all content on a separate learning interface hosted on the Campus LMS - Moodle, and is asynchronous.
- Content will be released weekly and typically takes 30–60 minutes to complete.
- Each week, we'll let you know what to focus on - whether it's something to reflect on, apply in real life, or just be aware of. You don't have to memorize anything. Just bring your honest attention, and we'll guide you through it.
- Each week's material will have a one-week deadline, except during campus festival weeks, where deadlines will be set before the festival begins.
- No content will be released one week before and during the mid-semester exams, and the course will end one week before the comprehensive exams.
- The content must be accessed by logging in to the campus LMS (Moodle).
- Each week ends with a quiz on the learning interface. A full score is required to proceed and multiple attempts are allowed.
- Completing that quiz will unlock a corresponding Moodle quiz, which you must attempt to mark the week's content as complete.
- Your progress is automatically saved on Moodle, so you can pause and return to the material anytime. Closing the window/tab will not result in losing progress.
- We encourage you to share your feedback! You can post your thoughts and questions on the discussion forum, or use the feedback forms provided at the end of each week's content. Our instructor team will respond to queries.
